REMARKS

In response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed from the Patent Office on November 4, 2005 applicant submits the following reply. The Notice identified an alleged defect in the amendment as missing the signature. Applicant respectfully disagrees. The submission entitled Amendment and Reply after Final submitted on October 27 comprises 10 pages, with the first page showing the table of content of the various parts of the submission, including the signature page on page 8. Applicant noticed that the documents has been broken into its various parts for the purpose of indexing into PAIR thus causing the separation of the signature page from the remainder of the amendment and remarks (which all bear the indicia pages x of 8).

Nonetheless Applicant noted that the amendment was missing the underlining of the added text and striking g of deletions in the claims and thus is resubmitting a set of claims showing the amendment proposed on October 27, 2005.

Applicant kindly request reconsideration of the present claims in view of the amendment and remarks as previously submitted and shown in the present claims.

Respectfully submitted,

Isabelle A. S. Blundell, Ph.D.
